

Christian Understanding of the Human Person

This course provides a much needed examination of the theology, spirituality, and modern sciences' view of the person

January 17-21, 2021 | 7:00 p.m.—9:00 p.m.

Therese Cirner, LPC, NCC, is a Licensed Professional Counselor providing counseling services in Ann Arbor, Michigan, specializing in trauma recovery and life transitions. She has been in private practice for 23 years working with marriage, families, children and individuals. Her counseling practice integrates the physical, emotional, cognitive and spiritual aspects of a person. Therese utilizes the science of psychology, the gifts of the Holy Spirit and the experience of years of clinical work together to give her clients the best of this integrated therapy.

The course is offered on-line with live streaming

The cost of the course is $95.00
