

Dr. William Newton

Christian Understanding of the Human Person

OCTOBER 14-18, 2024 // 6:30-8:30 PM

This course will represent the non-Christian models of the human person and the Christian/Catholic understanding of the aspects of the human person under the topics of freedom, conscience, call and mission, relationship and love. "Man fully alive is the glory of God." This statement of the early church fathers will be explored and demonstrated.

Dr. Newton is a professor of Theology and chair of theology at Franciscan University's Austria Program. He is an associate member of faculty at Maryvale Institute in Birmingham, U.K., and founding member of the Aquinas Institute of Ireland. He is originally from England. He and his wife, Claire, have six children.

The course is offered in person and by Zoom.

The cost of the course is $95.00
